

Plot Structure, Conflict, and Dr. Horrible Quiz

NAME: _____

SCORE: _____ / 7

HR: _____ DATE: _____

1-5: Fill-in-the-blank

1. The first _____ % of the story should be for the story's setup.
2. The longest act of the story should be the _____ act.
3. At the exact midpoint of the story, the hero is fully committed to his goal. This is known as the _____.
4. Turning Point #4, or the _____ is the point where it seems all is lost.

5-7: Short Answer

5. In Dr. Horrible's Sing-Along Blog, Dr. Horrible must kill someone in order to get into the Evil League of Evil. He doesn't want to, but is eventually convinced to do so. What convinces him?

6-7. What kind of conflict is exhibited in Dr. Horrible's Sing-Along Blog? Using examples from the film, explain why you believe this. (Note: there may be more than one correct answer.) (2-3) sentences)